GDPR - Implications & Practical Steps For Compliance & IT Security.

17th April 9.30am - 4.30pm.
Mallow Business Park.

Morning Session:

Thomas Phelan BCL, BSc.

- Certified Data Protection Practitioner.
- Experienced Information Security (ISO 27001) Practitioner.

GDPR: The key issues and how the workplace will be affected.

- What are the major changes coming in on the 25th May.
- How companies can get prepared in time for GDPR.
- How the rights of individuals will change with GDPR.
- Are you obtaining consent correctly?
- Getting staff on board.
- Conducting a GAP Analysis.
- Practical Exercises.

Afternoon Session:

Dave Devery - Net Support.

- With 10 years experience, Dave delivers IT solutions across a variety of industries.
- NetSupport is a full service IT services company, providing bespoke IT solutions and general IT support and maintenance.

GDPR - "IT Security by Design" - Real world practical examples, the difficulties and solutions.

- Firewall / Network Security
- Wireless Networks (Public & Private)
- Secure Remote Access & VPNs
- Active Directory (Login) Control
- Company Group Policies
- File / Folder Access Control
- Encryption
- Data - On-site or in the Cloud?
- Mobile Device Mangement
- Virus, Malware and Ransomware
- Email & Website Security & Encryption
- Security Awareness Training
- Data Backup & Disaster Recovery: On-site / off-site
- Cyber Security Insurance

Cost: €300 P.P.
Includes Lunch & Refreshments.

Book Your Place:
Tel: 0860422343
Email:training@qsi.ie